

Premium Lease Terms & Conditions

Below are the terms and conditions for a premium lease to a beat from Rezonant Entertainment.

The terms can be changed at any time.

1 Profitable Project Limit

Once purchased, you may only use the leased beat for a maximum of 1 profitable project. Examples of profitable projects include but are not limited to a song on an album or the background music for a film or commercial.

12000 Distributions Limit

Once purchased, the leased beat may be used for up to 12000 distributions. After 12000 distributions, you must cease distribution until you renew the lease.

Lease Renewal

In order to maintain your legal ability to distribute your 1 profitable project after 12000 sales as described earlier in this document, you must either buy a new lease from reznent.com or contact RezonEnt at rezonantentertainment@gmail.com to set up a lease renewal for $3.65 per every 1000 distributions

Continuity

Rezonant Entertainment reserves the right to modify, change, or cancel the terms of a lease without prior notice or consent. If someone purchases the exclusive rights to a beat you have leased, the terms of this lease will become void, and you will no longer have any legal right to the beat you have leased. Rezonant Entertainment will try its best to alert you if this occurs, and we may work out a deal to supply you with another beat as retribution.

Lease Agreement

By purchasing our product(s), you indicate and consent that you have read and agreed to the Premium Lease Terms & Conditions listed and detailed on this page. We reserve the right to change or modify the current Terms and Conditions without prior notice or consent.

Severability

If any part of this agreement is declared unenforceable or invalid, all remaining clauses in this agreement shall remain binding on the customer.
